

AD CONSULTING COUPLES' DINNER

AD consulting couples' dinner, held on Friday the 3rd of July 2015, in the foyer of AD Studio was not only elegant but romantic and fun-filled. A dinner for 23 which included staff, their spouses, Mr. Jimi Tewe (of Inspiro Consulting), Mr. Anslem Afunaya (Skye Bank), Mr. Olukorede Adnowo, Mrs Olajumoke Adenowo and Toluwalase Adenowo.

The beautifully placed lights and soft background music set the mood for the evening and made the atmosphere very welcoming. It was lovely as the princes and princesses dressed elegantly in black with crowns and tiaras embraced the evening.

Prayers led by Mr. Adenowo marked the formal beginning of the dinner. Mrs. Olajumoke Adenowo, the principal partner AD consulting, welcomed the guest and promised a fun-filled evening.

Love filled the air as the evening activities began to unfold...

6. How Well Do You Know Your Colleague

AD staff mimed each other leaving others to guess who was being mimed.

Whilst dinner was served, the MC of the day, entertained the audience excellently well through jokes and funny mimics. He entertained guests with jokes from high school, church and marriage. Couples took pictures to remember the night. The cutting of the cake and free dancing followed shortly.

As the evening came to a close, Yvonne Umoru gave the vote of thanks appreciating everyone present. Mrs. Olajumoke Adenowo, completed it all with funny uplifting words, giving all who attended a true evening to remember.

Mr. Jimi Tewe led the closing prayer giving God thanks for the success of the event.

COMMENTS ON THE EVENING

- “Thank you ma, I feel highly elated being part of the special event. It was superb and I was more that impressed. I can confidently and proudly say I am part of the AD Consulting’s Family. Mrs. A, with more people like you, our corporate world and families would be great. God’s greater blessings on you, your family and organization” – Anslem Afunaya.
- Mr. Temidayo Lawal had this to say after the ‘how well you know your spouse’ game...“it was a funny game, but also a lesson in itself,” he confesses, “it brings you to realize really how well you know your spouse, It makes you know if you have fun together as a couple and it shows if you plan together as a couple.”
- “It was a wonderful evening, full of surprises with lovely gifts” – Yvonne Umoru.
- “For those of us without spouses, it wasn’t any different”. Henry Nwaiwu, whose wife just put to bed, commented “I missed my wife being there but in all I enjoyed the evening.”
- Nina Nwosa had this to say “Although I’m single, I have to say I felt the love. The poems were really amazing. I’m really happy to be part of this lovely family”
- “it was out of this world. The organization was excellent. My husband and I had real fun”- Mrs. Ify Ikogo-ovu
- It was a great time to bond and have fun as couples and staff. The games were really exciting and friendly. I saw some lovely dancing steps.”- Segun Amao.
- “I had maximum fun and it was a good way to break from the normal work routine. It was really cool...”-Dotun Ogunraku

- “When the dinner was announced, I thought about the phase of life that I am and I felt it was an opportunity to make something happen...to make my intention known to someone special...” - Yinka Onanuga

I was reminded of what it meant to be part of something special, exceptional and remarkable. Everything that happened showed me what a ‘big family’ AD is...and like Nina said, “I am glad to be part of this family.
